

!New Site Feature Alert!

3.7.26 - Home

This site is a living breathing BEAST and all it knows (much like me) is THE GRIND and self improvement. Because of this alpha mindset we have developed a new little site feature. I'm going to be tracking my sports gambling losses or (inshallah) wins in the sports ticket to the left of the "thoughts" column. I'll be able to see my form (last 5 bet results), my units bet, units won/lost, and the pick I'm rocking with that day. The rule I am going to have for myself with these daily picks is it can't be lower odds than -130. Im excited to track this and see if I can just go on a fucking heater. I will be #gamblingresponsibly. Let's work baby. Upwards and onwards.
